HOTEL SANTA TERESA

CORNUCOPIA EVENTS

RUA ALMIRANTE ALEXANDRINO, 660, SANTA TERESA RIO DE JANEIRO

One of the continent's most beautiful hotels, as its many awards and accolades can attest to, the Hotel Santa Teresa is one of those places that can only be described as magical. This charming yet sophisticated property, formerly a historical coffee plantation mansion, has recently been restored to an extraordinary boutique hotel. Every single detail was carefully thought out and meticulously planned to ensure each lucky guest of the Santa Teresa has an experience they will never forget. Guest rooms offer a peaceful, serene atmosphere, where visitors can truly relax. Unique features include Ypê wood floors, Brazilian art pieces, and tropical gardens that were inspired by the property's association with the golden age of cocoa and coffee. So much more than just a place to rest your head, the Santa Teresa is also home to Natura Spa, and Têrêze Restaurant, where the breathtaking views are only outdone by chef Damien Montecer's exquisite creations

In a cosmopolitan neighborhood known for its artistic flair and well-preserved mansions, the Hotel Santa Teresa is easily a standout. The Santa Teresa district is an impressive blend of colonial and neo-classical styles, infused with museums and art galleries, allowing guests to soak in the culture of this extraordinary city. The property's convenient location provides easy access to all of the Olympic Event Zones and many of Rio's most desirable attractions including Christ the Redeemer Statue, Sugarloaf Mountain, and its world-famous beaches. Perched above the Bay of Rio, rooms of this exclusive hotel offer stunning views of the city's remarkable skyline and its picturesque beaches.

Visit one of Rio de Janeiro's oldest neighborhoods on this Santa Teresa discovery tour! Explore cobblestone streets and admire the neighborhoods' unique architectural styles while taking in stunning views of the city. Visit the Chácara do Céu Museum and Ruins Park before stopping by the famous Selarón Staircase..

SHOWS

End a weekend in Rio on a high note with the Ginga Tropical Show, a Sunday night spectacular of music and dance. From your seat inside a historic social dance hall and theater, get to know the musical dimensions of Brazil. Samba, bossa nova and lambada spice up the stage, as do the ladies and gents dressed in vibrant Carnival costumes. Throw in live drumming, capoeira and folklore from all over the country, and you have a cultural feast. Bonus: Hotel transport with a guide is included.

No visit to Rio de Janeiro is complete without experiencing the glamour and rhythm of a colorful samba show. Your entertaining evening at the Plataforma Show includes more than 30 brilliantly costumed dancers and musicians. This exciting mix of percussion, samba dance and capoeira (a Brazilian marital art and dance form) builds to a grand finale with a Carnival parade on stage. If you'd like to include dinner, upgrade your tour and enjoy a delicious barbecue buffet at an Ipanema neighborhood restaurant.
