DODGEBALL SUMMER RALLY

THURSDAY 1ST – SUNDAY 4TH
SEPTEMBER 2016

CORNUCOPIA EVENTS

Fast Cars & Super Stars; all the key ingredients for one of the most glamorous long weekends of the summer social calendar.

A mix of billionaires and eccentrics racing multi-million pound supercars across Europe. Previous rallies have seen everything from Sheiks driving a priceless Gold Bugatti Veyron, to Spencer Matthews from Made in Chelsea in a one off Caterham.

Everything from superyacht parties to closing down runways, racing round F1 circuits, behind the scenes tours of supercar factories, and much more... Ready for the adventure?

CORNUCOPIA EVENTS

The rally starts off with a typically sumptuous evening launch in London, followed by a morning rally that sets off down to the channel tunnel, heading through France to the French Alps; its final destination that day. Here, there will be another extravagant evening of entertainment. Over the next few days the rally sets off across the Italian mountains which are world renowned for hosting some of the best driving roads in the world. After an afternoon stop in the motorcity of Modena, the rally finishes on the banks of the spectacular Italian Lakes. The following morning the rally head off for one of the best driving days through Slovenia, before blasting through the winding roads of Croatia, which offer amazingly scenic and atmospheric hillside views out over the lush landscape. An amazing evening then awaits in the beautiful coastal city of Split.
