BERLIN FASHION WEEKS

CORNUCOPIA EVENTS

Two times per year Berlin becomes one big catwalk. The Fashion Week in Berlin is a meeting place for international designers, retailers and representatives of the fashion industry and the press. Fashion designers, buyers, media representatives and celebrities meet twice a year in Berlin to identify the trends of the coming season.

The highlight of the Fashion Week are the designers' catwalk shows - here it becomes obvious, what has been invented in the studios over the past few months.

The exclusive Fashion Week Packages give you the extraordinary opportunity to be right at the pulse of fashion.
